PhUN RUN

Run for a good cause! Help support the UCSD student-run free clinics!

The UCSD Student-run Free Clinic is a project under the direction of Dr. Ellen Beck of UCSD School of Medicine. This project has provided accessible and quality healthcare for the underserved in a respectful environment. In addition, this project serves as a great learning place in which students, health professionals, patients and community members work together toward the goal of providing health care for the underserved. To find out more information about the UCSD Student-run Free Clinic Project, please visit its website at <http://meded.ucsd.edu/freeclinic>.
